(c) A dissertation submitted under the provisions of Regulation 16

Dissertations should be submitted to the Secretary of the Faculty Board.

MATHEMATICS

M AM A- MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN MATHEMATICS

All Candidates are enrolled onto their papers by the Student Registry from information provided by the Centre for Mathematical Sciences early in the Easter term. Until this occurs, a placeholder enrolment is added to each MAMA student by the Student Registry.

M AT0 - MATHEMATICAL TRIPOS, PART IA

A candidate shall offer one of the following options:

- (a) Pure and Applied Mathematics
- (b) Mathematics with Physics.

The examination for Part IA shall consist of five papers.

Every candidate shall offer Papers 1, 2, and 3, and one additional paper as follows:

- (a) A candidate offering Option (a) shall offer Paper 4.
- (b) A candidate offering Option (b) shall offer the subject Physics from Part IA of the Natural Sciences Tripos (the written paper and the submission of note-books)

M AT1 - MATHEMATICAL TRIPOS, PART IB

Honours candidates offer all FOUR papers and may submit notebooks of practical work.

M AT2 - MATHEMATICAL TRIPOS, PART II

Honours candidates offer all FOUR papers and may submit notebooks of practical work.

M AT3 – MATHEMATICAL TRIPOS, PART III

All Candidates are enrolled onto their papers by the Student Registry from information provided by the Centre for Mathematical Sciences early in the Easter term. Until this occurs, a placeholder enrolment is added to each MAT3 student by the Student Registry.

MANAGEMENT STUDIES TRIPOS

MGT1 - MANAGEMENT STUDIES TRIPOS

Honours candidates offer all THREE papers;

Paper M1 Marketing and organisational behaviour

Paper M2 Quantitative methods and operations management

Paper M3 Economics and finance.

Honours candidates should also enrol for a Project Report, a Negotiations Workshop and for Coursework.

MANUFACTURING ENGINEERING TRIPOS

MET2 - M ANUFACTURING ENGINEERING TRIPOS, PART IIA

The examination for Part IIA consists of 10 modules which shall be examined by written exam, or essay or other coursework. Honours candidates offer

Papers 1-6
CAD/CAM Exercise
Industrial Visits
Major Project
Production Game

MET3 - M ANUFACTURING ENGINEERING TRIPOS, PART IIB

Honours candidates must offer

Both written Papers (Paper 1 and Paper 2)
Long Project (individual)
Module Examinations
Group Projects

MEDICAL AND VETERINARY SCIENCES TRIPOS

MEDT0 - MEDICAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IA

Honours candidates offer all three Sections of the subjects HOM, MIMS and FAB and would enrol in all of the components relating to each of those subjects on the enrolment form. Entry for HOM, MIMS and FAB, in the Tripos also serves as an entry for the corresponding subject of the Second MB Examination taking place at the same time as the Tripos.

Any candidate who fails the Second MB/Second Veterinary MB examination will be entered for the September re-sit examination by the Student Registry.

Candidates for the Second M.B. Examination only, under Regulation 4 or those candidates on the Cambridge Graduate Course, offer Section I and II of HOM, MIMS and Paper FBC from FAB. Such candidates should enrol in all of the components EXCEPT Section III for each of the subjects being offered.

VET0 - VETERINARY SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IA

Honours candidates offer all three Sections of the subjects HOM, MIMS and VAP and would enrol in all of the components relating to each of those subjects on the enrolment form. Entry for HOM, MIMS, and VAP in the Tripos also serves as an entry for the corresponding subject of the Second Veterinary MB Examination taking place at the same time as the Tripos. Any candidates who fail the Second Veterinary MB examination will be entered for the September re-sit examination by the Board of Examinations.

Candidates for the Second Veterinary M.B. Examination only, under Regulation 4, offer Sections I and II of HOM, MIMS and VAP. Such candidates should enrol in all the components EXCEPT Section III for each of the subjects being offered.

MEDT1 - MEDICAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IB

Honours candidates offer all Sections of the subjects BOD, HR, NHB, MODA, HNA. Candidates should enrol in all of the components relating to each of those subjects on the enrolment page.

Entry for BOD, HR, NHB, HNA and MODA, in the Tripos also serves as an entry for the corresponding subject of the Second MB Examination taking place at the same time as the Tripos.

Any candidate who fails the Second MB examination will be entered for the September re-sit examination by the Student Registry.

Candidates for the Second M.B. Examination only, under Regulation 4 or those candidates on the Cambridge Graduate Course, offer Sections I and II of BOD, HR, NHB, HNA and MODA. Such candidates should enrol in all of the components EXCEPT Section III for each of the subjects being offered.

VET1 - VETERINARY SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IB

Honours candidates offer all Sections of the subjects BOD, VRB, NAB, MODA and CVB. Candidates should enrol in all of the components relating to each of those subjects on the enrolment page

Entry for BOD, VRB, NAB, MODA and CVB, in the Tripos also serves as an entry for the corresponding subject of the Second Veterinary MB Examination taking place at the same time as the Tripos.

Any candidate who fails the Second Veterinary MB examination will be entered for the September re-sit examination by the Board of Examinations.

Candidates for the Second Veterinary M.B. Examination only, under Regulation 4, offer Sections I and II of BOD, NAB, MODA and CVB. For VRB, such candidates offer just VRBC. Such candidates should enrol in all of the components EXCEPT Section III for each of the subjects being offered.

MODERN AND MEDIEVAL LANGUAGES

MLT0 - MODERN AND MEDIEVAL LANGUAGES TRIPOS, PART IA

In each of the modern languages other than French: German, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, the examination for Part IA shall consist of either Option A or Option B, as set out below. In French the examination shall consist of Option B only.

or Paper B3 in the language in which he or she previously offered Option B.

(b) A candidate who offered two modern languages in Part IA, Option B in both, shall offer in Part IB Paper B3 in each of the two languages, and three papers chosen from Schedule IB.

(c) A candidate who offered one modern language and either classical Greek or classical Latin in Part IA shall offer papers in part IB as prescribed by the supplementary regulations.

(d) For a candidate who has obtained honours in another honours Examination subject to Faculty Board approval. The Faculty Board shall have the power to determine the papers that the candidate shall offer in general conformity with the provisions of either (a) or (b) above.

Supplementary regulations for Part IB (Statutes & Ordinances Pg.409)

Candidates who in Part IA offered Option A in a modern language and Option B in classical Greek or Latin shall offer in Part IB:

- (i) Papers B1 and B2, together with oral examination B, in the modern language taken in Part IA;
 - (ii) one paper from Schedule IB relating to that language;
 - (iii) Paper GL 15 or GL 16;
 - (iv) one further paper from among Paper GL 11 or GL 13, Papers GL 17–20, and the papers in Schedule IB.
- In Greek a candidate may additionally offer Paper GL 21; In Latin, a candidate may additionally offer Paper GL 22.

Candidates who in Part IA offered Option B in a modern language and Option A in classical Greek shall offer in Part IB:

- (i) Papers GL 12 and GL 15;
- (ii) one paper chosen from among Papers GL 17–20;
- (iii) two papers chosen from among the following: one further paper from among Papers GL 17–20; the papers in Schedule IB; and Paper B3 in the modern language taken in Part IA.

A candidate may additionally offer Paper GL 21.

Candidates who in Part IA offered Option B in a modern language and Option B in classical Greek or Latin shall offer in Part IB:

- (i) Paper B3 in the modern language taken in Part IA;
- (ii) either Paper GL 15 or Paper GL 16;
- (iii) three papers chosen from Paper GL 11 or GL 13, Papers GL 17–20, and the papers in Schedule IB.

In Greek a candidate may additionally offer Paper GL 21; In Latin, a candidate may additionally offer Paper GL 22.

N.B.1. Paper B3 in each language consists of B3 the Translation Paper and also the AV module (Audio-visual Media Listening test). Candidates must enrol in both of these elements in order to complete an entry for paper B3

N.B. 2. No candidate may offer more than one paper from Papers Du5, Gr3, Pg3, Sp10, SI 9 or SI 13 in any one year.

N.B. 3. Modern Greek Paper Gr3 is not available to candidates who have offered Modern Greek as a language in Part IA of the Tripos or in the Certificate or Diploma examinations.

N.B. 4. Dutch Paper Du5 is not available to candidates who have offered Dutch in Part IA of the Tripos or in the Certificate or Diploma examinations.

N.B. 5. Paper Pg 3 is not available to any candidate who offer or offered Portuguese as a language in any part of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos or for a Certificate or Diploma

N.B. 6. Asterisk papers may be taken only by candidates who offered Option A in the language concerned in Part IA. Such a candidate must offer at least one asterisked paper in that language.

N.B. 7. Papers ending with an 'E' are for those candidates who wish to offer a portfolio of essays under regulation 23 in place of the written paper.

N.B.8. Submission of Essays in place of written papers is to the Secretary of the Faculty Board

MLT2 - MODERN AND MEDIEVAL LANGUAGES TRIPOS, PART II

Subject to the provisions of Regulation 19 (i.e. a candidate shall not offer any Paper in Part II which they have previously offered in another University examination), candidates for Part II shall offer written papers and other exercises as follows:

(a) A student who takes Part II in the year next but one after last obtaining honours (either in Part IB of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos or in another Honours Examination), having subsequently spent a year abroad shall offer:

- (i) Papers C1 and C2 in a language offered as a language paper as listed in Schedule A by the candidate in Part IA and/or Part IB. The Faculty Board has agreed that Paper Pg. 3 shall constitute a language for the purposes of this regulation. A candidate shall not be required to offer both papers in the same language;
- (ii) A year abroad project;
- (iii) Either three papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D not more than two of which shall be taken from Schedule D,
Or two papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D together with a dissertation offered in accordance with Regulation 27
- (iv) oral examination C in a language in which the candidate offers one or both of Papers C1 and C2.

(b) A student who takes Part II in the year after obtaining honours in Part IB of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos or an Affiliated Student who has been given leave by the Faculty Board to take Part II in the second term after his or her first term of actual residence, shall offer:

- (i) Papers C1 and C2 a language offered as a language paper as listed in Schedule A by the candidate in Part IA and/or Part IB. The Faculty Board has agreed that Paper Pg. 3 shall constitute a language for the purposes of this regulation. A candidate shall not be required to offer both papers in the same language;
- (ii) Either three papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, not more than two of which shall be taken from Schedule D
Or two papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, together with a dissertation offered in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 27;
- (iii) oral examination C in a language in which the candidate offers one or both of Papers C1 and C2.

(c) A student who takes Part II in the year after obtaining honours in an Honours Examination other than Part IB of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos, shall offer:

- (i) Papers C1 and C2 in a language offered as a language paper as listed in Schedule A by the candidate in Part IA and/or Part IB. The Faculty Board has agreed that Paper Pg. 3 shall constitute a language for the purposes of this regulation. A candidate shall not be required to offer both papers in the same language;
either three papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, than two of which shall be chosen from Schedule D, or two papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, together with a dissertation offered in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 27.

(d) An Affiliated Student who takes the examination in the fifth term after his or her first term of actual residence, shall offer:

- (i) Papers C1 and C2 in a language or languages approved by the Faculty Board, provided that a candidate shall not be required to offer both papers in the same language;
- (ii) a year abroad project;

- (i) either four papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, not more than two of which shall be taken from Schedule D, or three papers chosen from Schedule II and Schedule D, not more than two of which shall be taken from Schedule D, together with a dissertation offered in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 27;
- (ii) oral examination C in a language in which the candidate offers one or both of papers C1 and C2 (taken in the preceding Michaelmas Term).

(e) An Affiliated Student who has been given leave by the Faculty Board under the regulations for Affiliated Students to take Part II in the second term after his or her first term of actual resident shall offer papers and other exercises as under sub-paragraph (b) above, except that Papers C1, C2 and the oral examination C must be in a language approved by the Faculty Board at such time as that leave has been given.

provided that a candidate who offers a dissertation under (a)(iii), (b)(ii), (c)(ii), or (d)(iii) may not also offer two papers from Schedule D that are assessed by means other than a written examination, unless the Faculty Board has given special permission for the candidate to do so.

N.B.1 No candidate may offer more than one of papers Gr 3, Pg3, Sp10, SI 9, SI 13 in any one year.

N.B.2 No candidate may offer more than one paper from among papers CS5 and CS6

N.B.3 Paper Gr 3 is not available to any candidate who offered Modern Greek as a language in any part of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos or for a Certificate or Diploma

N.B.4 Paper Pg 3 is not available to any candidate who offer or offered Portuguese as a language in any part of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos or for a Certificate or Diploma

N.B.5 No candidate may offer more than one of Papers SI 9 or SI 10 in any one year

N.B.6 Papers ending with OD are for those candidates who wish to offer an Optional Dissertation under Regulations 24 and 27 in place of the written paper. The Faculty Board have agreed that any student who wishes to submit an optional dissertation in Part II, in place of a Part II Schedule paper that has been suspended, shall be allowed to do so, assuming that teaching by supervision is available and that the Head of the relevant Department can confirm that Examiners will also be available. Students and Directors of Studies will be required to confirm, in writing, that they understand that failure to submit the dissertation and to sit a Part II Schedule paper in its place, will result in zero marks for this option.

N.B.7 * Although the oral examination took place in the preceding Michaelmas Term (October 2020), candidates are requested to enrol in the oral language that they offered in the Michaelmas Term when enrolling in MLT2 for Easter Term 2021. For example, candidates taking French Option C need to enrol in FRCO as well as FRC1 and FRC2.

MUSIC

MUT0 - MUSIC TRIPOS, PART IA

This subject consists of six papers:

Paper 1.	Music and musicology today
Paper 2.	Music history 1
Paper 3.	Music history 2
Paper 4.	Introduction to music analysis
Paper 5.	Tonal skills 1
Paper 6.	Tonal skills 2

Honours candidates should offer one Option for Paper 1 (O1A, O1B, O1C), plus Paper 1A, 1T, Papers 2-6, candidates need to offer all elements of Paper 5 (5, 5A, 5B) and Paper 6 (6, 6A, 6B, 6C).

MUT1 - MUSIC TRIPOS, PART IB

A candidate for Part IB shall offer six papers in all:

Papers 1, 2, and 3;

and three other papers.

Subject to the approval of the Faculty Board, a candidate at Part IB may be permitted by the Faculty Board to offer not more than one Part II paper. A candidate who offers either Paper 3 or 5 in Part IB II shall submit a portfolio to the Chair of Examiners.

MUT2 - MUSIC TRIPOS, PART II

Honours candidates for Part II shall offer six papers in all. A candidate must offer a combination of papers that is examined by at least six hours of written examination.

A candidate who offers either Papers 1-3 in Part II shall submit a portfolio to the Chair of Examiners.

A candidate for Part II may be permitted by the Faculty Board to offer not more than one Part IB paper.

MUSM1 - MASTER OF MUSIC EXAMINATION IN CHORAL STUDIES

The M.Mus. Examination shall consist of the following elements,

SEMINAR COURSE

Each candidate shall submit two essays

CONDUCTING PATHWAY

- i) Choral conducting: Weekly instruction, leading to a practical examination, and seminars on related topics.
- ii) Seminar course: Weekly seminars, resulting in two coursework essays.
- iii) Choral recital: resulting in a choral performance which may reflect scholarly research undertaken by the candidate.

iv) Optional elements: Students select one of the following:

- a) extended essay; or
- b) editing project; or
- c) music arrangement; or
- d) organ performance; or
- e) continuo performance
- v) College placements and observations
- vi) Aural classes

VOCAL PATHWAY

i) Solo recital: Individual singing lessons and song classes, leading to a solo recital at the end of the Lent Term.

ii) Seminar course: Weekly seminars, resulting in two coursework essays.

iii) Ensemble performance: Classes and workshops leading to an exam in the first half of the Easter Term, and seminars on related topics.

iv) Optional elements: Students select one of the following:

- a) extended essay; or
- b) editing project; or
- c) music arrangement; or
- d) organ performance; or
- e) directing a performance from the keyboard (harpsichord and/or organ)
- v) College placements and observations
- vi) Aural classes

NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS

NST0 - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IA

Honours candidates offer THREE subjects from GROUP A and ONE subject from GROUP B. A candidate who has previously obtained honours in the Medical and Veterinary Sciences Tripos shall not offer Biology of Cells, Evolution and Behaviour or Physiology of Organisms. No candidate shall offer both Biology of Cells and Computer Science.

GROUP A

Biology of Cells
Chemistry
Computer Science
Earth Sciences
Evolution and Behaviour
Materials Science
Physics
Physiology of Organisms

GROUP B

Mathematics
Mathematical Biology

Candidates can enrol onto the SUBJECT TITLE ONLY, the remaining elements of each subject will be added to their enrolments later in the Michaelmas term by the Student Registry.

NST1 - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IB

Honours candidates shall offer THREE subjects, provided that

- (a) Candidates who wish to offer Physics B with either Evolution and Animal Diversity or Pharmacology need permission from NST Management Committee;
- (b) Not more than one subject shall be chosen from any one of the groups numbered (i) to (ix) below;
 - (i) Chemistry A; Neurobiology.
 - (ii) Ecology, Evolution, and Conservation; Biology of Cells; Physics A.
 - (iii) Cell and Developmental Biology; Materials Science.
 - (iv) Earth Sciences B; Physics B.
 - (v) Biochemistry and Molecular Biology; Earth Sciences A.
 - (vi) Experimental Psychology; Plant and Microbial Sciences.
 - (vii) Evolution and Animal Diversity; Mathematics; Pharmacology.
 - (viii) Chemistry B, Physiology.
 - (ix) History and Philosophy of Science.

No candidate shall offer

- (a) Mathematics if they have previously obtained honours in Part IB of the Mathematical Tripos;
- (b) Mathematics unless they have either
 - (i) previously offered Mathematics in Part IA of the Natural Sciences Tripos,
 - or*
 - (ii) obtained honours in Part IA of the Mathematical Tripos, or in Part IA of the Computer Science Tripos or in Part IA of the Engineering Tripos,
 - or*
 - (iii) they are an Affiliated Student;

Candidates can enrol onto the SUBJECT TITLE ONLY, the remaining elements of each subject will be added to their enrolments later in the Michaelmas term by the Student Registry.

NST2AS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: ASTROPHYSICS

Candidates offer All FOUR papers plus other coursework: Records of practical work, Project work, etc. Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2BI - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: BIOCHEMISTRY

Candidates offer ALL FIVE papers, submit an essay and a thesis.
Candidates may be examined orally on the subject of their essay or thesis and on the general field of knowledge within which the subject falls.

NST2BBS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: BIOLOGICAL AND BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

Each candidate shall offer:-

- (1) One major subject – taking the required number of papers within this subject
- (2) One minor subject
- (3) A Compulsory dissertation

The Major and Minor Subjects and their examination requirements shall be announced by the Faculty Board of Biology not later than the division of the Lent Term in the year next preceding the examination. Please refer to the Notices published by the Faculty of Biology for the permissible subject combinations.

NST2CH - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: CHEMISTRY

Candidates offer FOUR papers, candidates choose either Paper 1A or 1B and choose either Paper 4A or 4B. Plus submission of records of further work

NST2ES - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: EARTH SCIENCES

Candidates offer the Essay paper, plus 2 other written papers, 3 practical examinations or assessed coursework.

Also offer set records of classwork and fieldwork and a research project report.
Candidates may be examined orally.

NST2GN - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: GENETICS

Candidates offer FIVE written papers (Papers 1-5) and submit an essay (SE). Candidates shall also submit a Thesis (T). Candidates may be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2HP - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE

Candidates may offer either Option A or Option B.

Option A candidates offer THREE papers and submit two essays and a Dissertation
Option B candidates offer FOUR papers and submit two essays.

NST2MS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: MATERIALS SCIENCE

Candidates offer FOUR written papers and further work
Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2PA - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PATHOLOGY

Candidates offer FOUR written papers (Papers 1-4) and a practical examination (PRAC) which may include an oral examination. All candidates shall also submit a project report (PRT). Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2PH - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PHARMACOLOGY

Candidates offer FOUR written papers (Papers 1-4) and submit a report of a research project (RP) and an oral communication on the research project to an audience of students, staff of the Department and Internal Examiners. Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2PC - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PHYSICAL SCIENCES

Each candidate shall offer:

- the examination requirements of one Half Subject, chosen from the Part II Subjects Chemistry, Physics, Earth Sciences;
- the examination requirements of one subject from Part IB of the Tripos;
- a dissertation of 5,000 words.

(i) The examination requirements for Half Subject Chemistry shall consist of three written papers, each of one and a half hours' duration, and the submission of note-books of further work.

Half Subject Chemistry may not be offered unless the candidate has previously offered either Chemistry A or Chemistry B in Part IB of the Natural Sciences Tripos.

(ii) The examination requirements for Half Subject Physics shall consist of:

- (1) two papers drawn from Papers 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the papers in Physics for Part II of the Natural Sciences Tripos;
- (2) one paper drawn from Papers 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the papers in Physics in Part II of the Natural Sciences Tripos;
- (3) two units of further work not to include the research review;
- (4) a computing exercise;

Each paper shall be of two hours' duration.

Half Subject Physics may not be offered unless the candidate has previously offered either Physics A or Physics B in Part IB of the Tripos.

(iii) Half Subject Earth Sciences examination requirements shall consist of:

Two Papers, practical examinations or assessed work

Essay Paper

Records of practical work/fieldwork

May not be offered unless the candidate has previously offered either Earth Sciences A or Earth Sciences B in Part IB of the Tripos.

(iv) Half Subject Material Sciences examination requirements shall consist of:

Two Papers, practical examinations or assessed work

May not be offered unless the candidate has previously offered Material Sciences in Part IB of the Tripos.

NST2PHY - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PHYSICS

All Candidates offer

- (a) Papers 1/TSP, 2/REL, 3/AQP and 4/OE;
- (b) a minimum of three and a maximum of four from Papers 5/AFD, 6/PNP, 7/QCM, and 8/SCM;
- (c) three or more units of further work;
- (d) a compulsory computing exercise (FW/CE).

Candidates may be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2PDN - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PHYSIOLOGY, DEVELOPMENT AND NEUROSCIENCE

Candidates offer any FOUR written papers and a report of a research project (RP).

Candidates may also be examined orally.

NST2PNB - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PSYCHOLOGY, NEUROSCIENCE AND BEHAVIOUR

Candidates offer FOUR written papers and a report of a research project (RP). Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners

NST2PL - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PLANT SCIENCES

Candidates offer FOUR written papers submit an essay (SE) and a report of a research project (RP). Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2PS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: PSYCHOLOGY

Candidates offer FOUR written papers as follows:

Papers 1-3.

Candidates need to offer ONE paper from Papers PBS6, PBS7

In addition, candidates offer two copies of a Report of a Research Project.

Candidates may offer an original Dissertation.

Candidates may also be examined orally, at the discretion of the examiners.

NST2ZO - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II: ZOOLOGY

Candidates offer any FOUR written papers. Candidates also submit to the examiners two pieces of course-work comprising a research paper review and records of project work or practical work or both.

NST3AS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: ASTROPHYSICS

Candidates shall offer a number of written papers from the Mathematical Tripos Part III and Natural Sciences Part III Physics in both Lent and Easter terms. Candidates also submit a report of a research project (RP).

Candidates wishing to offer a paper from Part III Physics, which is examined in Lent term, should enrol onto this paper under Lent term within the Enrolment Window.

Candidates will be enrolled onto a NST3AS placeholder in Easter term until the actual papers being offered from Mathematical Tripos Part III and Natural Sciences Part III Physics in Easter term are added by the student during Lent term.

The number of written papers to be set and the subject and duration of each paper shall be announced by the Director of the Institute of Astronomy not later than 1 November next preceding the examination.

NST3BI - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: BIOCHEMISTRY

Candidates offer TWO written papers (Paper 1 and Paper 2). In addition candidates submit a report of a research project (RP). Candidates may be examined orally on the subject of their report and on the general field of knowledge within which the subject falls.

NST3CH - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: CHEMISTRY

Candidates offer THREE Papers and submit a report of a research project (RP). Candidates may also offer one or two Interdisciplinary papers. The options chosen from amongst the Interdisciplinary papers dictates the Paper choices; i.e. Paper 1A should be chosen by candidates offering no Interdisciplinary papers, Paper 1B is offered by candidates offering one Interdisciplinary paper. This also applies to Paper 3

Further guidance should be sought at the Faculty of Chemistry. They may also be examined orally on the subject of the report and on its general field of knowledge.

NST3ES - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: EARTH SCIENCES

All candidates offer a Seminar Paper, submit research project report (RP) and offer SIX optional written papers. Further guidance should be sought from the Department of Earth Sciences.

Candidates may be examined orally on the subject of their research project report, and on the general field of knowledge within which it falls, and on any aspect of the course.

NST3HP - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE

Candidates offer the following options:

- A Literature review (LR)
- Two short submitted essays (2SE)
- A Research Paper (RP)
- A Dissertation (DIS)

NST3MS - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: MATERIALS SCIENCE

Candidates offer THREE written papers (Papers 1-3), submit a report of a research project (RP), and of records of coursework and associated exercises (CW).

NST3PHY - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: PHYSICS

In Lent Term candidates offer THREE OR MORE papers from the list of Major Topics 1/AOP; 1/AQC; 1/BIO; 1/PEP; 1/RAC; 1/PP; 1/PEP; 1/TQM; plus 2/MIN (this a placeholder enrolment) If a candidate is offering 1/QFT in Easter, then they should offer a minimum of TWO papers in Lent.

For Easter Term, the Student Registry advises students to enrol in their modules/papers once the Enrolment Window reopens in February. All candidates offer 3/GPP & RPR; Plus at least THREE Minor Topic Papers: 2/AQFT; 2/CP; 2/ENP; 2/EXO; 2/FSU; 2/GFT; 2/MP; 2/NOQL; 2/ASM; 2/PNS; 2/PT; 2/QI; 2/QS; 2/SQC; 2/IDP1; 2/IDP2; 2/IDP3

NST3SB - NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART III: SYSTEMS BIOLOGY

Honours candidates shall offer:

- (a) Three written papers
- (b) A computer based examination
- (c) a practical report of a design project
- (d) a report of a research project

MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY

MAAS - MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN ASTROPHYSICS

Candidates offer papers from the Mathematical Tripos Part III and Natural Sciences Tripos Part III Physics. Candidates also submit a Research project report.

Candidates shall offer a number of written papers from the Mathematical Tripos Part III and Natural Sciences Part III Physics in both Lent and Easter terms. Candidates also submit a report of a research project (RP).

Candidates wishing to offer a paper from Part III Physics, which is examined in Lent term, should enrol onto this paper under Lent term within the Enrolment Window.

The number of written papers to be set and the subject and duration of each paper shall be announced by the Director of the Institute of Astronomy not later than 1 November next preceding the examination.

MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN MATHEMATICS – see Mathematics Tripos Part III for details

MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN EARTH SCIENCES – see Natural Sciences Tripos Part III Earth Sciences for details

M AMS - MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN MATERIALS SCIENCE

Candidates offer THREE written papers (Papers 1-3), submit a report of a research project (RP), and of records of coursework and associated exercises (CW).

M APY - MASTER OF ADVANCED STUDY DEGREE IN PHYSICS

In Lent Term candidates offer THREE OR MORE papers from the list of Major Topics 1/AOP; 1/AQC; 1/BIO; 1/PEP; 1/RAC; 1/PP; 1/PEP; 1/TQM; plus 2/MIN (this a placeholder enrolment) If a candidate is offering 1/QFT in Easter, then they should offer a minimum of TWO papers in Lent.

A candidate for Part II under (7b) may not offer the two submitted essays in accordance with this regulation and a dissertation in accordance with Regulation 9.

PSYCHOLOGICAL AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS

PBT0 PSYCHOLOGICAL AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IA

Honours candidates shall offer FOUR written papers as follows:

- a) The two papers in Section A (PBS1 and PBS2) plus
- b) Two papers from Section B (A1; B1; NS1; NS2; PHIL1; PHIL2; POL1; SAN1; SOC1)

PBT1 - PSYCHOLOGICAL AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART IB

A candidate for Part IB shall offer four papers as follows:

PBS3

And

PBS 4, PBS4WP

And

TWO further paper chosen from the list of Optional Papers.

PBP2 – PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II

The scheme of examination shall be as follows, candidates take PBS3 and PBS4, plus two further papers from those available each year.

PBS 3 Social and developmental psychology

PBS 4 Cognitive neuroscience and experimental psychology

Two Optional Papers

Any candidate who has not previously completed Part IA of the Tripos must, except with the permission of the Committee of Management, offer PBS 1 and PBS 2 as Optional Papers if he or she has not previously offered these papers within another Tripos.

PBT2 - PSYCHOLOGICAL AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, PART II

A candidate for Part IIB shall offer four papers as follows:

- (a) A research Dissertation (PBS5)
- (b) Three further papers from those available each year.

THEOLOGY, RELIGION, AND PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION TRIPOS

TRPT1 THEOLOGY, RELIGION, AND PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION TRIPOS, PART I

A candidate offers the following combination of papers in Part I:

One of the language options from Paper A1A, A1B, A1C, A1D

And

Either Paper A2 or Paper A3

And

Three further papers from Paper A2 – Paper A8

TRPT2 THEOLOGY, RELIGION, AND PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION TRIPOS, PART IIA

A student who is a candidate for Part IIA in the year next after obtaining honours in Part I of the Theology, Religion, and Philosophy of Religion Tripos shall offer four papers chosen from Group B, provided that

- (i) a candidate who so wishes may offer as an additional paper either a second language from Paper A1 other than the one he or she has offered in Part I or a second language from Paper B1, if he or she is offering that Paper;
